Estimando procedente que se celebre públicamente y de un modo adecuado uno de los más grandes acontecimientos históricos de nuestro tiempo, el solemne otorgamiento del Tratado de Paz de Versalles;

Y toda vez que una comisión, compuesta de representantes de todas las naciones aliadas en la última gran contienda en defensa de la libertad y de la justicia internacional, se ha reunido y ha recomendado que el domingo, tres de agosto de mil novecientos diez y nueve, sea designado como día de acción de gracias y de alabanzas al Creador y Salvador del mundo y para la expresión de nuestra gratitud por su divina protección en la terrible guerra, de tal suerte dispensada, que la seguridad del género humano ha quedado para siempre establecida; y en vista de que dicha comisión ha recomendado también que el lunes, cuatro de agosto de mil novecientos diez y nueve, sea designado y declarado día de fiesta oficial para la celebración civil de un tratado justo y duradero, y para conmemorar el inicio de una Era de Paz en la tierra y de Buena Voluntad entre los hombres;

Por tanto, yo, Charles E. Recognizing the importance of Arbor Day and the desirability of observing this occasion with appropriate public exercises, I, Charles E. Yeater, Acting Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, do hereby designate and proclaim Saturday, October fourth, nineteen hundred and nineteen, as Arbor Day.

This day will be observed as heretofore in every municipality and every township in the Philippine Islands, with exercises which will include the planting and care of trees, the fostering of interest in the preservation of forests, the improvement and embellishment of roads, parks, plazas, and private grounds, and which will lay emphasis upon the importance of conducting food campaigns and the manner of conserving food supplies.

A movement of this kind should not be limited to governmental agencies. The interest of the whole people should be enlisted and the participation of the general public secured. United action will result not only in the beautifying of homes, playgrounds, plazas, and highways, but will protect the natural resources and enhance the economic growth of the Islands.

I do hereby request and urge that all officials and employees of the Government and all citizens having at heart the best interests of the country unite to achieve the purpose for which this movement has been organized by making the Arbor Day celebration a success and by impressing upon the people the lessons that this day is intended to teach. It has become customary to consider the schools as the prime movers in this event, but all provincial, municipal and Insular officials should coöperate with the school authorities to the end that there may be unity of purpose and concerted action in the observance of Arbor Day throughout the Islands.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Government of the Philippine Islands to be affixed.

Yeater, Gobernador General Interino de las Islas Filipinas, por la presente designo y proclamo como Día del Arbol el sábado cuatro de octubre de mil novecientos diez y nueve.

Este día se observará como anteriormente en todos los municipios y townships de las Islas Filipinas, con ejercicios que comprenderán la siembra y cuidado de árboles, el estímulo del interés en la conservación de bosques, y la mejora y embellecimiento de carreteras, parques, plazas y terrenos particulares, y que acentuará la importancia de efectuar campañas alimenticias y la manera de conservar efectos alimenticios.

Un movimiento de esta clase no debe estar limitado a las agencias gubernamentales. Se debe atraer el interés de todo el pueblo y conseguir la participación del público en general. La acción unida dará por resultado no solamente el embellecer las casas, sitios de recreo, plazas y caminos, sino que protegerá los recursos naturales y acrecentará el desarrollo económico de las Islas.

Por la presente ruego y encarezco que todos los funcionarios y empleados del Gobierno y todos los ciudadanos que sientan los intereses del país se unan para llevar a cabo el fin para el cual ha sido organizado este movimiento, haciendo que sea un éxito la celebración del Día del Arbol e inculcando en el pueblo las lecciones que este día trata de enseñar. Ha sido costumbre considerar a las escuelas como las promotoras en este caso, pero todos los funcionarios provinciales, municipales e insulares deben cooperar con las autoridades escolares, con el fin de que haya unidad de miras y acción concertada en la observancia del Día del Arbol por todas las Islas.

No. 19. ✓

Whereas the President of the United States did, on the fifth day of November, nineteen hundred and nineteen, issue the following proclamation:

"BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A PROCLAMATION.

"The season of the year has again arrived when the people of the United States are accustomed to unite in giving thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which He has conferred upon our country during the twelve months that have passed. A year ago our people poured out their hearts in praise and thanksgiving that through divine aid the right was victorious and peace had come to the Nations which had so courageously struggled in defense of human liberty and justice. Now that the stern task is ended and the fruits of achievement are ours, we look forward with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifice of the Nations will find recompense in a world at peace; but to attain the consummation of the great work to which the American people devoted their manhood and the vast resources of their country, they should as they give thanks to God re-consecrate themselves to those principles of right which triumphed through His merciful goodness. Our gratitude can find no more perfect expression than to bulwark with loyalty and patriotism those principles for which the free people of the earth fought and died during the past year. We have had much to make us grateful in spite of the confusion in our economic life resulting from the war. We have prospered; our harvests have been opened, and of our abundance we have been able to render succor to less favored nations; our democracy remains unshaken in a world torn with political and social unrest; our traditional ideals are still our guides in the path of progress and civilization; and the great blessings vouchsafed to us, for which we devoutly give thanks, should arouse us to a fuller sense of our duty to ourselves and to mankind to see to it that nothing that we may do shall mar the completeness of the victory which we helped to win. No selfish purpose animated us in becoming participants in the world war, and with a life spirit of unselfishness we should strive to aid by our example and by our cooperation in realizing the enduring welfare of all the people and in bringing into being a world ruled by friendship and good will.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, for observance as a day of thanksgiving and prayer by my fellow countrymen; inviting them to cease on that day from their ordinary tasks and to unite in their homes and in their several places of worship in ascribing praise and national thanksgiving to God, the author of all blessings and the Master of our destinies.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia, this fifth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth.

“WOODROW WILSON,

“By the President:

ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State.

Now, therefore, I, Francis Burton Harrison, Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, do hereby recommend the observance of the foregoing proclamation by the residents of the Philippine Islands.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Government of the Philippine Islands to be affixed.

Done at the city of Manila this nineteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

PROCLAMA DEL GOBERNADOR GENERAL DE LAS ISLAS FILIPINAS.

No. 19.

Por cuanto el Presidente de los Estados Unidos expidió, el día cinco de noviembre de mil novecientos diez y nueve, la proclama siguiente:

“PROCLAMA DEL PRESIDENTE DE LOS ESTADOS
UNIDOS DE AMÉRICA.

“Ha llegado de nuevo la estación del año en que el pueblo de los Estados Unidos acostumbra congregarse para dar gracias a Dios Todopoderoso por las bendiciones que ha otorgado a nuestro país durante los doce meses transcurridos. Un año hace que nuestro pueblo derramó su corazón de alabanzas y demostraciones de gratitud porque, merced al auxilio divino, el derecho alcanzó la victoria y la paz volvió a las naciones que tan valerosamente lucharon en defensa de la libertad y de la justicia humana. Ahora que la ruda labor ha terminado y que los frutos del triunfo son nuestros, dirigimos nuestros ojos confiados a la aurora de una era en que los sacrificios de las naciones hallarán recompensa en un mundo en que reine la paz; pero, para alcanzar la consumación de esta gran obra a la cual el pueblo americano consagró sus hombres y los inmensos recursos de su país, deben, al dar gracias a Dios, consagrarse de nuevo a esos principios del derecho que han triunfado mediante su generosa bondad. Nuestra gratitud no puede hallar expresión más perfecta que escudando con nuestra lealtad y patriotismo esos principios por los cuales los pueblos libres de la tierra lucharon y dieron su vida en la guerra pasada. Tenemos mucho de que estar agradecidos, a pesar de la confusión que la guerra ha causado en nuestra vida económica. Hemos prosperado; hemos empezado a recoger nuestras cosechas, y con nuestra abundancia hemos podido prestar auxilio a naciones menos afortunados; nuestra democracia permanece intacta en un mundo despedazado por perturbaciones políticas y sociales; nuestros ideales tradicionales continúan siendo nuestro guía en el camino del progreso y civilización; y las preciosas bendiciones que se nos han otorgado, por las cuales damos devotamente las gracias, deben despertar en nosotros un sentido más cabal de nuestro deber para con nosotros mismos y para con el género humano, de procurar que nada de lo que hagamos amengue la integridad de la victoria que hemos ayudado a ganar. Ningún propósito egoísta nos movió a intervenir en la guerra universal, y animados del mismo espíritu generoso, debemos procurar ayudar, por medio de nuestro ejemplo y de nuestra cooperación, a alcanzar el bienestar duradero de todos los pueblos y a dar existencia real a un mundo regido por la amistad y buena voluntad.

“Por tanto, yo, Woodrow Wilson, Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, designo el jueves, día veintisiete de noviembre próximo, para su observancia como día de acción de gracias y de oración por mis compatriotas, a quienes invito a que en ese día suspendan sus tareas cotidianas y se congreguen en sus hogares y en los distintos lugares destinados al culto para entonar alabanzas y dar gracias en nombre de la nación a Dios, Autor de todos los beneficios y Señor de nuestros destinos.

“En testimonio de lo cual, lo firmo de mi puño y letra y hago estampar el sello de los Estados Unidos.

"Dada en el distrito de Columbia, hoy, día cinco de noviembre del año de Nuestro Señor mil novecientos diez y nueve, y de la Independencia de los Estados Unidos el ciento cuarenta y cuatro.

"WOODROW WILSON.

"Refrendado:

"ROBERT LANSING, Secretario de Estado."

Por tanto, yo, Francis Burton Harrison, Gobernador General de las Islas Filipinas, por la presente recomiendo el cumplimiento de la proclama precedente por los habitantes de las Islas Filipinas.

En testimonio de lo cual, lo firmo de mi puño y letra, y hago estampar el sello del Gobierno de las Islas Filipinas.

Dada en la ciudad de Manila, hoy, día diez y nueve de noviembre de mil novecientos diez y nueve.
